The Children's Hour.

Mrs. M. L. Collat entertained the children last Saturday afternoon at the regular hour, 4 o'clock, at the Public Library rooms. "A Trip to Europe," with pictures all along the way, was so beautifully told the children; a stop in Rome, and all the places of interest were given. Children enjoy traveling, and next to this comes a traveler's description of traveling. It is needless to say that the children were thoroughly interested.

Mrs. Sue DeVaney will interest the children next Saturday afternoon at the usual hour, at the library rooms. Let none forget, for she will have some things to tell you that you will be glad to hear.

Auxiliary B. of L. F. & E.

The Auxiliary of the B. of L. F. & E. met with Mrs. Willard Friday afternoon of last week. It was a delightful occasion. The rooms were beautiful in cut flowers and ferns. After spending a while in the parlors, all were invited to the dining room, where a delicious luncheon was served.

Pleasant Evening.

Last evening Rev. and Mrs. A. D. Sparkman entertained the teachers of the Baptist Sunday school and the Junior Aid Society of the church in a delightful informal manner. The cold without added to the cheer with in this bright, hospitable home. Conversation and music were enjoyed, with fireside games. Misses Isa Nance and Pearl Taylor assisted Mrs. Sparkman in serving delicious cake and chocolate.

Miss Maggie Phillio of Rusk is visiting Mrs. Middleton and Mrs. P. S. Colley.

SUGGESTIONS

For Shippers of Christmas Packages. Read Them Carefully.

Do you expect to send your mother, sweetheart or friend a Christmas present this year. If so, and you find it necessary to patronize some express company, it would be well to bear in mind the following suggestions submitted by an expressman:

1. Ship your package early, by the 18th of December, if possible. The express company will give you a small label to paste on the package, reading, "Don't open until Christmas." This will insure the package reaching its destination before Christmas, and give the additional pleasure to the recipient of the gifts of having it on Christmas morning.

2. Use wooden boxes for packing. Glass or fragile articles should be well protected. It may cost a few cents more, but the danger of loss or damage is very much reduced. True, if the shipment is lost or damaged, the express company will pay for it, but that will give your friend no pleasure.

3. Write the address in full, state, county, city, street and number on the box or package with ink or crayon. Tags are frequently torn off and lost.

4. If you want to prepay the charges, write the word "Paid" in large, plain letters on the package.

5. Insist on a receipt and see that the amount paid is marked on the receipt and package, and the value of the package declared thereon.

6. Write your own address in full somewhere on the package, following the prefix "From"

7. Enclose a card in each box or package reading:

Your Address.
To

Consignee's Address.

This in order that should the outer markings be destroyed the inner mark will insure prompt forwarding and delivery.

8. If not convenient to ship in wooden boxes, use strong wrapping paper (not newspapers) and tie with strong cord.

9. If the package contains anything of perishable nature, write the word "Perishable" in large, plain letters, on the box or package, to insure special attention and first delivery.

If you will observe these suggestions, you will greatly assist in insuring the prompt delivery of your goods in good condition.

Be Most Expansive That Any Cure.

This country is now filled with people who migrate across the continent in all directions seeking that which gold cannot buy. Nine-tenths of them are suffering from throat and lung trouble or chronic catarrh resulting from neglected colds, and spending fortunes vainly trying to regain lost health. Could every sufferer but undo the past and cure that first-neglected cold, all this sorrow, pain, anxiety and expense could have been avoided. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is famous for its cures of colds, and can always be depended upon. Use it and the more serious diseases may be avoided. For sale by Bratton Drug Co.

NOTES OF INTEREST.

Scandals were uncovered in the investigation of the Phoenix Insurance company of Brooklyn. Criminal action is likely.

James Vucassovich was arrested in New Orleans for Chinese smuggling.

New York State Senator Timothy Sullivan is made stakeholder for the Jeffries-Johnson fight.

Choked to Death

is commonly said of babies who have died of the croup. How unnecessary this is. No child ever had the croup without having a cold or cough at the start. If you will stop the first symptom of the cough with Ballard's Horehound Syrup there is no danger whatever of croup.
